The practical layout includes a large compartment with two dividers and two smaller zip pockets, while the MOLLE system allows additional gear to be attached or the bag to be clipped onto a larger backpack.

Full product description

Extralink Military Backpack Shoulder Pouch - functionality in a compact form.

Extralink Military Backpack Shoulder Sachet MIL-1119 will meet your expectations. Measuring 28x20x10 cm, this compact backpack perfectly combines durability, comfort and tactical solutions, perfect for any mission. Whether you are going on an outdoor expedition or need a comfortable companion for everyday challenges, this shoulder pouch will be a reliable solution.

Adjustable harness - perfect fit

The pouch is equipped with a 100 cm long adjustable brace, which allows you to adjust it perfectly to your figure. As a result, the bag fits perfectly to your body, providing full freedom of movement, no matter how dynamic your activity is.

Waterproof and durable design

The pouch is made of durable Nylon Oxford 800D material, which is highly resistant to damage. In addition, the compartments are lined with a special PVP coating that provides IPX1 water and moisture protection. This is ideal for expeditions where weather conditions can change rapidly.

Functional pockets and MOLLE system

The pouch has one larger zippered compartment with two additional compartments for easy organization of essentials. In addition, two smaller pockets also zippered for quick access to small items. MOLLE webbing allows for easy attachment of additional equipment or attaching the pouch to a larger backpack.
