Full product description

Extralink Military Tactical Survival Strap - Durability and Functionality at the Highest Level.

Whether you need a reliable belt for everyday use or during expeditions in extreme conditions, this model will meet your expectations. Thanks to its advanced design and the use of durable materials, it ensures not only comfort, but also safety in any situation.

Unparalleled durability

The belt is made of extremely durable nylon webbing and metal alloy, which guarantees its resistance to damage and durability in harsh conditions. A strong buckle with a strength of 12 kN (more than 1,200 kg) ensures a secure fastening, even under heavy loads. This makes the belt perfect for both everyday use and more demanding tactical operations.

Comfort and fit

The belt is equipped with an elastic belt loop, which ensures a perfect fit to the wearer's figure, without causing discomfort even during prolonged wear. With a length of 120 cm and a width of 35 mm, the belt is securely held on the hips, while not restraining movement and providing full freedom of action.

Versatility and versatility

Thanks to its 67 mm wide buckle and 24 kN loop strength, the belt can serve not only as a closet item, but also as a tool for attaching equipment in extreme situations. Its versatile design makes it ideal for a variety of situations - from everyday activities to intensive outdoor activities.

Style and practicality

Available in a classic black color, the belt looks sleek and stylish, making it the perfect accessory for both tactical wear and everyday styling. Its minimalist design emphasizes functionality without sacrificing aesthetics, making it a great match with various elements of clothing.
