Full product description

Momcozy - Your support during the postpartum recovery period

When describing this set, it is worth emphasising that the Momcozy brand has created a comprehensive "all-in-one" solution that is much more cost-effective than standard hospital supplies. Each product inside has been carefully selected to support a woman when birth approaches and during the demanding time afterwards. If you plan to use a device such as a breast pump during this time, proper body care is key to ensuring the feeding process is painless and comfortable. This set is the perfect complement for a mother who already has her favourite breast pump and wants to take comprehensive care of her health.

Safety and birth - hygiene at the highest level

In the packaging you will find specialist disposable underwear that fits the figure perfectly, gently supporting the abdominal belt and ensuring the necessary discretion. This postpartum belt and the elastic construction mean that the product does not press on sensitive areas, which is crucial in the Postpartum phase. If your breast pump, for example the M9 model, is already waiting for its first use, you will feel immense relief by using this professional set. The correct size and soft belt in the underwear guarantee that every new mother will feel confident, taking care of her belt and sensitive areas of the body.

Momcozy set - full control and comfort for mum

The set also includes 20 breathable nursing pads, which are essential when you plan regular breastfeeding. If your breast pump is used frequently, these pads will effectively prevent clothing from getting dirty and keep your breast dry. The whole set has been packed in a stylish canvas bag, making it easy to store all the items in one place. Remember that your child benefits from your well-being. If there is a mistake in the underwear size, an exchange is offered, and if you are not fully satisfied, a refund is possible. Choose Momcozy and get through the postpartum period with dignity and comfort.

Breastfeeding and comfort, and the soothing power of nature

To provide immediate relief, the set includes cooling gel pads and soothing tea tree and witch hazel foam. Such recovery is extremely important so that every breast and the whole body can rest after the hardships brought by birth. If your breast pump model M9 is being used intensively, this set will help you get through the more difficult moments. The breast pump supports milk expression, and this product supports your body, providing a soft touch and relief. If you notice damage to the parcel during ordering, our contact is open to ensure a quick exchange or refund.

Breastfeeding and recovery with Momcozy brand accessories

A key element of the set is the 17 oz (500 ml) Peri bottle, which allows you to precisely clean the perineal area without the hassle of bending down. The ergonomic 75-degree angle and 14 spray holes make this accessory from the Momcozy brand much safer and easier to use than bottles issued in hospitals. When the child is asleep, mum can calmly take care of herself, using the product that is available in this package. Remember that hygiene is essential, so your breast pump should also be clean, but it is this set that takes care of your direct physical safety.
