Information:

Momcozy YN21 is a cream-coloured, seamless nursing and maternity bra that combines elegance with maximum comfort. Made from soft, breathable fabric, it fits the body like a second skin and remains invisible under clothing. The absence of underwires ensures comfort, does not cause pressure, and supports comfort even during sleep. Adjustable straps and the Hook & Eye fastening make it easy to adjust and allow quick one-handed feeding. The model is also suitable for use with a breast pump, offering mothers practical, stable and stress-free support every day.

Maternity bra and support for a breast pump

As a maternity bra, this model responds flexibly to changes in the body. This multifunctional bra also allows you to use a breast pump efficiently, which is key for mums expressing milk to maintain a supply. Special adjustments in the material ensure that the breast pump stays stable, and feeding is stress-free. The maternity bra from Momcozy is an investment in peace of mind, and its fast delivery means you can enjoy a new standard of bust support almost immediately.

Pewne dopasowanie, prosta elegancja

Soft wire-free bra - comfort 24/7

This soft bra has been completely freed from rigid wiring, eliminating painful pressure on milk ducts and irritation. It is a wire-free model that is designed to provide gentle support without any irritating structural elements. The Momcozy nursing bra has adjustable straps, allowing you to position the breasts perfectly and relieve pressure on the back. This design makes the bra ideal for sleeping, guaranteeing a soft touch and complete safety during night-time rest.
