Information:

Momcozy YN46 is a seamless floral push-up nursing bra designed for comfort from pregnancy through to motherhood. Jelly Strip technology provides stable support without underwires or pressure, while the flexible, lightweight construction adapts to the body like a natural extension of the skin. The bra does not show under clothing, helps lift the bust, reduces the risk of leakage, and supports convenient feeding thanks to fastenings and straps that can be operated with one hand. It is a safe, breathable and durable choice for everyday wear, at home, at night and for light activity.

Jelly Strip technology as the product's key feature

The product uses a jelly strip solution, based on modern methods of bust support. Innovative bonding technology means that Jelly Strip seamlessly joins the fabrics instead of traditional stitching. The seamless nursing bra uses Jelly Gel, which replaces a classic underwire. This strip - seamless floral bra offers the support known from underwired models, but without the use of rigid wires. The floral push-up nursing bra has a slightly thicker panel that allows the breasts to be lifted, while the material can stretch freely. This seamless floral nursing bra remains flexible.

Use and everyday wear of the bra

When you are at home, this floral push-up nursing bra proves extremely practical. The strip - seamless floral bra is wire-free and seamless, which eliminates the risk of irritation. The Jelly strip - seamless floral model has fastenings and straps that are easy to use with one hand. The seamless floral nursing bra helps prevent leakage and helps prevent breast sagging. This floral push-up nursing bra ensures the bra holds the bust in place.
