Information:

The cordless neck massager with a 2000 mAh battery provides 90-100 minutes of use on a single USB-C charge, offering complete freedom at home, at work and while travelling. The ergonomic design with a back loop and adjustable strap allows comfortable hands-free massage and precise body fit. Shiatsu technology with 6 silicone heads effectively relaxes tense muscles, improves circulation and reduces stress. Two operating modes and two speed levels let you adjust the intensity, while the heating function supports recovery and relieves pain. Automatic switch-off after 10 minutes increases safety. Also ideal as a gift.

Full product description

Wireless convenience and long battery life

Forget the limitations of cables and enjoy complete freedom of use. The wireless neck massager is equipped with a high-capacity 2000 mAh battery, which provides up to 90-100 minutes of operation on a full charge. The included USB-C cable enables fast and convenient charging, so the device is always ready to use.

Mobility and hands-free comfort

The ergonomic design with a back loop allows you to enjoy the massage without using your hands. An additional strap enables precise adjustment of the device to the selected part of the body, ensuring even better results. Its lightweight, portable form makes the massager ideal for use at home, at work or while travelling.

Deep Shiatsu massage

Advanced Shiatsu massage technology with six silicone heads imitates the movements of a professional masseuse's hands. Intense kneading motions effectively relax tense muscles, improve circulation and help reduce stress. There are two operating modes and two speed levels to choose from, allowing you to perfectly tailor the massage to your individual needs.

Soothing heating function

The built-in heat function further enhances the effectiveness of the massage. Gentle warmth helps relax muscles, relieve pain and support the body's recovery. For complete safety, the device is equipped with automatic shut-off after 10 minutes of operation.

Perfect gift idea

The massager is an excellent choice for a gift for loved ones. It is suitable for any occasion - birthdays, Christmas, Mother's Day or Father's Day. It is a practical and thoughtful present that supports health, relaxation and well-being every day.
