Information:

MOULD KING 24111 Sunflower Potted Building Set is a creative construction set with 854 pieces, from which an eye-catching bouquet of sunflowers in a pot is created. The combination of white, yellow and orange flowers with green leaves forms a warm, natural plant-inspired decoration. The model works perfectly as a decoration for a home, office or room, and thanks to its brick-built form it requires no watering or care. It is an ideal choice for building enthusiasts, botanical decorations and original gifts.

Full product description

Sunflowers That Stay for Longer

MOULD KING 24111 SUNFLOWER POTTED BUILDING SET is a construction set for people who enjoy creative building, plant decorations and eye-catching models. With 854 pieces, you can create a brick-built bouquet of sunflowers in a pot that brings a warm, natural accent to any interior. It is a great option both for relaxed building and for later display on a shelf, desk or table.

Colours Full of Energy

The composition combines white, yellow and orange sunflowers, giving the model a light, cheerful and decorative look. Layered petals, distinctive flower centres and green leaves create an impressive whole inspired by nature. Each flower adds character to the bouquet, and the varied colours make the set fit well into bright, cosy and plant-inspired arrangements.

Decoration Without Maintenance

Once assembled, the brick-built sunflowers in a black pot become a ready-made decoration for the home, office or hobby room. The model does not require watering or special care, while still helping to bring a plant-like atmosphere into the space. It is an interesting choice for fans of botanical sets, brick collectors and people looking for a gift idea with a floral theme.
