Full product description

just enough. always right.

Three shades that get the job done. No fuss and no unnecessary steps. The Poppy Head Just Enough palette lets you create a quick eye look for every day, work, a trip or an evening out.

Three matching shades

Carefully selected colours can be used separately or freely combined with one another. They are enough to create a simple daytime look, define the crease or create a more striking effect.

Soft, easy-to-use formula

The matte eyeshadows are soft, richly pigmented and easy to blend. You can gradually build the colour intensity, making it easier to match your make-up to the occasion and the desired result.

Make-up without guessing

The colours have been paired so that they work well together. Apply one shade all over the eyelid or combine all three, emphasising the mobile lid, crease and outer corner of the eye.

Compact palette for every day

The small format means the palette can be conveniently taken in a make-up bag, handbag or luggage. It is ideal for quick make-up, touch-ups during the day and trips.

Why will you love it?

- three shades that are easy to combine
- a soft formula that makes blending easier
- the ability to build colour intensity gradually
- a compact format suitable for travel
- quick make-up without unnecessary steps

How to use?

Apply the chosen eyeshadow with a brush or pat it on with your fingertip. Use one colour for a quick, even effect, or combine all three shades. Blend the edges between the colours until you achieve smooth transitions.
