Full product description

WalkingPad R1 Pro folding treadmill

Finally decide to go for a run but it just started raining? Do it at home! Never let the weather ruin your mood to exercise. WalkingPad R1 Pro lets you enjoy running in the comfort of your home. Enjoy your favorite TV show or movie while you exercise.

Compact size thanks to foldable design

The WalkingPad R1 Pro treadmill gives you the opportunity to exercise at home while taking up little space thanks to its foldable design. Providing a walking and running mode, especially during bad weather, the WalkingPad R1 Pro allows you to exercise without having to go to the gym.

Robust and sturdy construction

Aluminum alloy material is used as the backbone of the structure for added durability and stability. You don't have to worry about creaking while running, and the solid construction will give you a great exercise experience.

Comfortable handrail for increased safety

The Xiaomi Kingsmith Walking Pad R1 Pro treadmill has a telescopic handrail to protect users while running. When the handrail is vertical, the speed can increase up to 10km/h. When the handrail is in the horizontal position, the speed can only be 6km/h.

Activity monitoring from within the application

You can use the remote control or mobile app to control your speed. Data on time, speed, number of steps and calories burned are displayed. Two speed monitoring modes are available: "A" for automatic mode, "M" for manual mode.

A short walk while working or studying

Spend hours in a chair in front of a monitor while working or studying? Take a short walk break with the Xiaomi Kingsmith Walking Pad R1 Pro treadmill.
