Full product description

QuWireless QuMax XR2 AXR12 - Maximum Performance on Your Network

Discover a new level of reliability with the QuWireless QuMax XR2 AXR12, a unique LTE and Wi-Fi antenna. Developed for Teltonika's RUTX12 routers, this product offers advanced technology and a robust design that delivers superior performance even in harsh environments. An ideal choice for those who need a stable and fast Internet connection in all conditions.

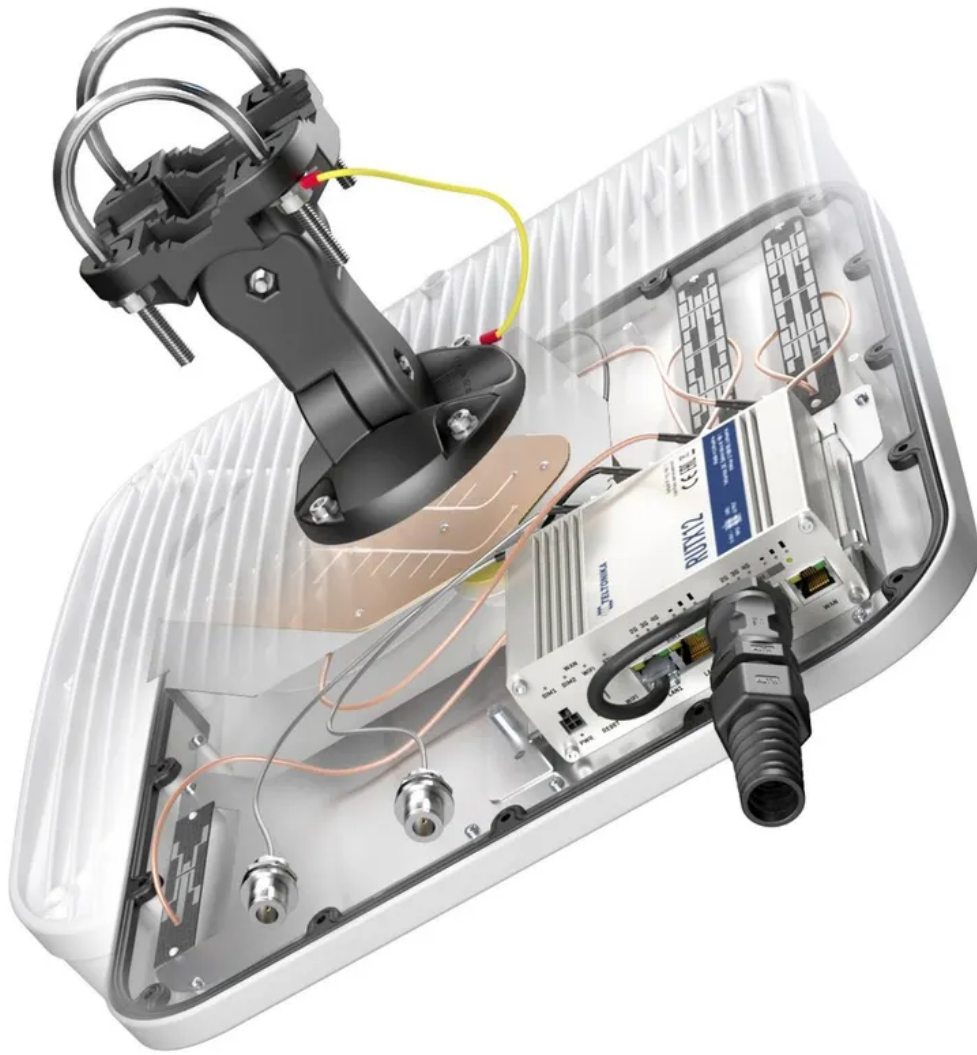

Excellent connection performance

The QuWireless QuMax XR2 AXR12 is an antenna that provides excellent LTE and Wi-Fi connections. With a signal gain of up to 7 dBi for LTE and 6 dBi for Wi-Fi, this antenna guarantees stable and fast connections, regardless of conditions. Support for a wide frequency range ensures optimal performance in any situation.

Weather resistance

The QuMax XR2 AXR12 antenna features exceptional durability thanks to its housing made of materials such as ABS, aluminum, PTFE and fiberglass. Its IP67 certification guarantees dust and water resistance, making it ideal for outdoor applications. You can rely on its reliability even in extreme temperatures from -40°C to 75°C.

Versatility and compatibility

The QuWireless QuMax XR2 AXR12 is fully compatible with Teltonika's RUTX12 router, ensuring seamless integration and immediate operational readiness. A directional antenna and support for GPS and Bluetooth make it a versatile solution for all your communication needs.
