Full product description

Discover the solution for an active lifestyle with the Xiaomi Redmi Watch 3 Active Gray.

This sleek smartwatch combines advanced health and activity monitoring features with a modern design that will blend in perfectly with any style. With a long battery life and 5 ATM water resistance, this watch will become a reliable daily companion , no matter what challenges you face.

Personalize your style with interchangeable straps

Redmi Watch 3 Active Gray offers a wide selection of interchangeable straps, allowing you to personalize the look of the watch according to your preferences. Whether you're heading out for a workout or an elegant dinner, you can quickly customize your smartwatch for any occasion. With 200 watch faces to choose from, you can further personalize the look, making the watch not only a functional tool, but also a fashion accessory.

Large color display for optimal readability

The Xiaomi Redmi Watch 3 Active Gray features a large, high-resolution color display that provides excellent readability in all lighting conditions. The curved glass gives the watch a modern look, while the lightweight and ergonomic design make it extremely comfortable to wear all day long. The watch's envelope, made using NCVM technology with a metallic finish, adds elegance and durability.

Advanced health and sports features

The Xiaomi Redmi Watch 3 Active smartwatch is equipped with a professional optical heart rate monitor and sleep monitoring functions, including deep and shallow sleep, to keep you on track. In addition, the watch monitors blood oxygen levels (SpO2), which is crucial for staying fit. More than 100 sports modes including 10 professional sports modes supported by professional sports algorithms help accurately record the duration and intensity of your workouts.

Water resistance and performance

The Xiaomi Redmi Watch 3 Active Gray features a water resistance rating of 5 ATM, allowing the watch to be used safely while swimming, although it is not designed for diving . The watch offers a battery life of up to 12 days, ensuring long-lasting operation without the need for frequent charging. A charger is included to quickly charge the watch.
