Full product description

Powerbank Xiaomi ZMI Aura 20K

The Xiaomi ZMI Aura 20K portable powerbank allows you to charge any compatible device while traveling or in other situations where it is not possible to connect to the mains. The compact size and light weight allow you to conveniently carry the powerbank with you at all times, and the 20,000 mAh capacity will restore a smartphone charge up to 6 times and a tablet charge up to 3 times. Multiple connectors ensure charging several devices at once and versatility of use.

Versatile use in combination with modern technology

With built-in USB-A ports, the Xiaomi ZMI Aura 20K Powerbank allows you to charge any portable equipment with appropriate data cables, while the advanced Type-C speed will ensure fast charging. In addition, the external battery supports pass-through charging, allowing you to use it as an AC adapter, charging the device itself and connected devices simultaneously. Reliable and safe charging is ensured by a large number of built-in protections against overcharging, misconnection, etc.

Nice and handy

The durable plastic case with rough texture does not collect fingerprints, looks stylish and does not slip in the hands. For better visibility, the battery is equipped with an LED display that shows not only the charge level but also the charging direction

Main advantages:

- Supports Power Delivery Technology
- Simultaneous charging of multiple devices
- Large battery capacity of 20000mAh
