If you're dreaming of premium sound that will transport you to another world, the Apple AirPods Max Gray are the perfect choice. These wireless headphones are the quintessential innovation and design that make every listening experience a unique one. Thanks to Apple technology and precision-engineered dynamic drivers, the Apple AirPods Max offer sound that will delight even the most discerning music lovers.

Amazing sound quality

Apple AirPods Max offer top-notch sound with an Apple-designed dynamic driver. Computational acoustic sound provides pristine clarity throughout the audible range. Adaptive equalization and dynamic head tracking let you enjoy surround sound like you've never experienced before.

Convenience and comfort

The AirPods Max Gray headphones feature foam and fabric cushions that conform to different head shapes for a perfect fit. The adjustable headband and flat-folding earcups allow you to store the headphones conveniently, while the Smart Case keeps them safe. Lightweight materials and precision craftsmanship ensure comfort even during prolonged listening.

Advanced technology and features

With active noise cancellation and surround sound, the Apple AirPods Max offer an unparalleled audio experience. The headphones automatically turn on and pair with your Apple devices such as iPhone, iPad and Apple TV. The fast-charging feature lets you enjoy 1.5 hours of playback in just 5 minutes of charging, and the battery provides up to 20 hours of listening on a single charge.
