Information:

The Extralink AZH 12U 600×600 two-section rack cabinet is a solid solution for mounting 19" equipment in offices, server rooms and CCTV systems. Made of cold-rolled steel, it offers a durable, welded construction and the option of wall mounting or floor standing. The front doors, made of tempered glass, can open to the left or right and provide convenient access, while the two-section design makes rear servicing easier. Removable side panels with locks and keys, 12U height marking, cable entry holes and 2 fan mounting positions ensure functionality and better cooling.
