Full product description

Tastier, healthier, simpler

The Extralink Home Air Fryer SJ-420 fat-free fryer is a solution for people who appreciate flavorful and healthy meals without using a lot of fat. Thanks to its advanced hot air circulation technology, it reduces the fat content of the food being prepared. It's an appliance that offers versatility, combining the functions of a deep fryer, grill and oven, and is extremely easy to use.

Uniform Cooking:

This technology ensures that the hot air is evenly distributed around the food for even cooking and crispness on all sides.

Better Frying Results:

By circulating air around the food, the food is evenly fried, minimising the need to flip the food during cooking.

Faster Cooking:

More efficient air circulation can reduce cooking time compared to traditional methods, which also contributes to energy savings.

Healthier Food:

Even frying without the need for large amounts of oil allows for healthier dishes with lower fat content.
